Forecast For Scotland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Sunday 06 Jun 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Mainly dry and sunny today, northeast and far northwest cloudier.

Today:
Most places will have a dry day with some lengthy spell of sunshine. Northeast will be cloudier with an isolated afternoon shower. Western Isles clouding over this afternoon with the odd spot of rain. Warm in the sunshine.

Tonight:
Dry this evening with some sunshine. The rest of the night will be dry and mostly clear, but some low cloud over the Western Isles and eastern coastal districts.

Monday:
Most places dry with some sunny spells, some high cloud around. Southeast may see some showery rain. Low cloud lingering along North Sea coasts.

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:
Mostly dry and bright on Tuesday, northwest cloudier. Cloudy with patchy rain spreading east on Wednesday. Mostly dry on Thursday, some patchy rain in the west.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.